

The screenshot shows the homepage of the greenWalls website. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for 'Questionnaire', 'Partners', 'Forum', 'About', 'Contact', 'Sign In', and 'Sign Up'. The main headline reads 'Build your green wall today with our support!'. Below it, a sub-headline says 'We help you with our user-friendly tutorials to make your office natural and beautiful. With the support of Stadt München, you can do something good for your office and the environment. Let's go!' with 'Learn more!' and 'Build now!' buttons. A large image of a woman and a child standing in front of a massive, intricate green wall sculpture is displayed. To the left, a smaller image of a vertical green wall in a planter is shown. Below the main image, there's a section titled 'Know your benefits for having a green wall in your office environment' with a 'Benefits' button and a small icon of a landscape. At the bottom, there's a 'our partners' section featuring logos for 'natural greenwalls', 'Landeshauptstadt München', and 'HM'.
